

Hi, I'm Ellen. I'm a designer & developer in Austin, Texas.

SEPTEMBER 2017 – PRESENT

Senior Designer @ Emergent Order

Led digital and interactive design and creative research projects, including six-figure non-profit website redesigns and e-commerce products, while managing teams of up to six designers and developers. Produced interactive designs, proposals, creative briefs, design research reports, and client presentations.

NOVEMBER 2014 – SEPTEMBER 2017

Junior Designer @ Emergent Order

Designed, built, and managed interactive digital experiences for in-house products and client projects. Worked on virtual reality apps, content websites, branding & logo designs, and graphic design deliverables for marketing campaigns. Helped build our in-house web design and development vertical from the bottom up.

JUNE 2013 – NOVEMBER 2014

Communications Associate @ Texas Public Policy Foundation

Designed graphics, documents, power point presentations, and posters. Managed and art-directed website and social media. Founded the in-house media analytics program, and project-managed the internal side of an award-winning website redesign.
